U. S. COURT SUSTAINS DEMURRER IN INCOME TAX PUBLICITY TEST

Kansas City, Mo. — Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves Tuesday sustained the demurrers of Walter S. Dickey, owner and editor of the Kansas City Journal-Post and Ralph Ellis, general managing editor to indictments charging alleged illegal publication of federal income tax returns.

The clause in the law holding that publication of income tax returns was illegal, Judge Reeves said in effect in announcing his decision, is in violation of the first amendment to the federal constitution relative to the freedom of the press.

Washington, D. C. — The government is prepared to appeal from the decision of Federal Judge Reeves in Kansas City Tuesday in the income tax publicity tax case.

BUDGET FOR 1926 59 MILLION LESS THAN CURRENT ONE

Estimates of Six Major Departments Show Reduction with One Exception

Washington, D. C. — The cost of running the federal government in the fiscal year of 1926 was fixed by President Coolidge, in the annual budget sent to congress Tuesday at $3,729,519,846.48, or a reduction of $59,225,931.72 from the estimated expenditures of the current year.

The estimates of six major departments or other agencies of the government—interior, navy, war, treasury, shipping board and veterans bureau—were reduced in the new budget while there was only one notable increase—that for the department of agriculture.

Practically all of the $26,000,000 reduction in the interior department was due to the smaller allotment for the Pension bureau. That bureau's outlay was cut from $224,616,000 for the current year to $219,110,000 for next year, largely because of the decreasing pension roll resulting from the death of pensioners.

The cut of $23,000,000 in the navy's total was scattered over many items of expenditure, but a large part of it was due to a reduction of the fund set aside under the heading of "increase of the navy." It is understood supplemental estimates for needed construction will go to congress later.

There were scattered reductions totalling $8,000,000 in the War Department's allowance, but no particular branch of the military service was singled out for reduced appropriations.

It was in the Veterans bureau estimate that the budget director made his biggest cut under the figures submitted a year ago. A net total of $79,000,000 was lodged off in spite of increases in some departments of the bureau's activities. The factors which more than offset these increases included a drop from $89,000,000 to $88,000,000 for vocational rehabilitation, due to the decreasing necessity for giving vocational training to men wounded in the war; a reduction from $127,500,000 set aside a year ago for possible use in bonus payments, to $82,000,000, which the budget director estimated would be sufficient to carry the payments through next year if applications continue to come in at their present slow rate; and a $7,000,000 reduction in the amount set aside for hospital, construction.

YOUNG'S AIDE EXPLAINS DEBT PLAN OF DAWES

Robinson Tells of Workings to Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Conclave

By Associated Press
Los Angeles.—How the Dawes plan works was explained to a joint session of the International Chamber of Commerce and the United States Chamber of Commerce in which the opening of the latter's second western division midyear meeting here Tuesday by Henry M. Robinson, President of First National Bank of Los Angeles, member of the so called Dawes committee on German reparations, and during the past five months collaborated with Owen D. Young, in putting the Dawes plan into effect.

Robinson whose work was the organization of the new German Bank of Issue, the railroad company and the industrial bank, and the issuance of the German railroad and industrial bonds, as well as to organize the coordinating board, said in part:

"Prior to the war, the international movement of credit was general and freer than ever before in the world's history. And this was largely because of the free and unhampered flow of gold.

WAR MOVED CREDIT

"The war moved great masses of credit and of gold and changed the location of the creditors from one country and one financial center with the major movement of gold and credit control to the United States and of all the maladjustments resulting from the war, the most difficult to bring back to normal has been the free movement of gold and of capital.

"The creditor nations' interest proceeded to collect reparations under the treaty and with continuously decreasing success until through the devaluation of the German currency which devalued the reparations, Germany's greatest impetus in the passive resistance program following the occupation of the Ruhr district, Germany was brought to the verge of financial and economic destruction and political disruption.

"The smaller states in Europe were practically without exception approaching a similar condition and business of all countries had come to believe that unless the enemy countries were to be saved from debacle, a collapse of some of the victorious nations would certainly follow and that Communism would come into control of most of continental Europe.

"These were the conditions that influenced the reparations commission to appoint the expert committees to go into the question."

U. S. COURT DENIES MAIL ROBBER PLEA

Grants Writ of Error but Fahy and Murray Must Start Sentences

By Associated Press
Chicago.—The federal circuit court of appeals Tuesday denied the appeal of counsel for William J. Fahy and James Murray, under 35-year sentences for the Roundout $2,000,000 mail robbery, for a writ of supersedeas.

The court granted a writ of error which will permit review of the case by the court of appeals early next spring, but bail was refused and they must start serving their sentences at the Atlanta prison, it was ordered.

Their departure will be delayed a few days to permit conferences on their appeal with their attorneys.

Fahy, a former postal inspector, and Murray, a west side politician, were the only ones of the mail robbers to stand trial.

The others, the four Newtons, Brent Glascock and Bert Holliday will be sentenced Saturday on their pleas of guilty. They were the actual robbers of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train, while Fahy, it was charged, furnished the inside information and Murray planned the hold-up.

Charlie's Bride Must Cling To Schoolbooks

Los Angeles—A photographic copy of the 16-year-old birth certificate of Lillian Louisa McMurry who several years ago became Lita Grey of the movies, and who several days ago became Mrs. Charles Chaplin of Beverly Hills, was tossed onto the Chaplin lawn early Tuesday about the time morning milk was delivered.

It came from a prominent page of the Los Angeles Times where fate and the activities of inquisitive reporters had conspired to place it for comparison with the Mexican marriage records which last week depicted Mrs. Grey as a 19-year-old bride and gave Chaplin's age as 35.

According to the certificate published by the Times, Miss Grey was born near Hollywood, April 18, 1908. Thus she was a lass of 18 summers when Chaplin "discovered" her three years ago and set her on the ladder of

Who Is She?

Do you know her? She is Chicago's "mystery girl." She was found wandering around in the Union Station there. The girl is in the Cook County Hospital now and doesn't know who she is. She has forgotten everything about her past, but her answers to questions indicate she might be a college student, and the name "Sharlotte" seems to arouse a response from her.

SOLDIER GROOM HELD AS FORGER

Fort Snelling Man Leaves Trail of Worthless Checks on Honeymoon

By Associated Press
Eau Claire — Thomas Bronson, young soldier from Fort Snelling, Minn., who wooed and wed a Rice Lake girl and then left a trail of worthless checks across three states during his honeymoon, was brought before Judge Henry McBain here Monday for sentence which was deferred for a few days.

Bronson, who was arrested when he attempted to pass a $75 check at Rockford, Ill., pleaded guilty in district court here to a charge of forgery. Postponement was granted by the court when it was informed that Bronson's bride was making attempts to make good the worthless checks which her husband is charged with issuing.

The Fort Snelling soldier secured a marriage license at Redwing, Minn., on Nov. 18, at which time he was alleged to have paid the officiating clergyman with a bogus check. When he was brought back to Eau Claire, police authorities declared Bronson confessed to passing worthless checks here while preparing for the wedding trip.

MEDIC AND WIFE SHOT BY INTRUDER

By Associated Press
Birmingham, Ala.—Mrs. George T. Edwards, wife of a Fairfield physician, was slain while she slept, and her husband shot in the hand by a person who entered the home about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning.

A wound in the left temple of the woman indicated that she was slain with a blunt instrument.

The physician was awakened by someone moving about the house. When he investigated the noise, he was fired upon. Two bottles of chloroform were found after the intruder leaped from a window. It was believed the assailant left these.

Police had not determined whether the assassin was bent on burglary or moved by other motives.

Burns on the woman's body indicated that some drug may have been administered before she was struck.

KORTEZ READY FOR EXPIATION OF HIS CRIMES

Master Swindler Desires to Lead Son's Feet in Path of Righteousness

By Associated Press
Chicago.—Leo Korte, promoter of fake oil schemes in which his relatives and friends invested $2,000,000, brought back Monday from Halifax, N. S., to face his victims, wants "to get it over with as soon as possible."

"I have done wrong. I want to be punished. I am going to plead guilty and take my punishment," he was quoted as saying after he had made what state's attorneys said was a clean breast of his operations extending over a period of 13 years.

His assets dwindled to 12 one dollar bills and the soiled and wrinkled suit he wore, the erstwhile liberal spender and Bayeno oil stock salesman said he did not expect to interfere with the course of justice in any way.

"I want my son Mentor to know, absolutely, that wrongdoing is wrong, that it means punishment as well as unhappiness. By pleading guilty and going to the penitentiary I hope to be able to teach my son, beyond a doubt, that he must never do wrong."

Four indictments, three of them charging defalcations of $4,000 each and the fourth $38,000 through the operation of a confidence game have been returned against Korte. Each carries a penalty of from one to four years in prison.

Federal authorities said they would be satisfied with the state prosecution and would issue a capias for his arrest on a federal indictment charging use of the mails to defraud to be served on him if he leaves either a jail or penitentiary.

Congress Must Await Effects of Present Tax Law Before Fresh Reduction, Coolidge Says

Washington, D. C. — President Coolidge informed congress Tuesday that present estimates point to a surplus of revenues over expenditures of $67,884,489 for the present fiscal year and of $27,743,714 for the fiscal year 1926 out he advised against any further tax reductions until definite results from the present tax law are known.

The president recalled his recommendation for a reduction in taxes and said that this far in this fiscal year, previous calculations of the revenue revision of the estimates for 1925 showed that receipts for the current year should approximate $3,601,968,237 while the expenditures should not exceed $3,534,083,808, and compared these with the estimates for the next fiscal year, transmitted in the budget showing probable receipts of $3,641,715,095 and a probable cash disbursement by the treasury of $3,567,551,273 which will include some large expenditure program.

Howell-Barkley Bill to Abolish Rail Board Due After Holidays

Washington, D. C. — Changes in rates of postage for certain classes of mail along with the proposed readjustment of pay of postal employees are expected to receive early consideration in congress as a result of the comprehensive report on the cost of carrying and handling the various classes of mail which Postmaster General New was ready to lay before congress.

The exhaustive compilation of costs was understood to how accurately the loss incurred by the government in handling certain classes of mail and those which are yielding a profit. The cost ascertainment just completed is the first such comprehensive survey since 1911 and was brought about by questions raised in congress three years ago as to whether newspaper and magazine rates were bearing their proper share of cost and also as to the adequacy of parcel post rates.

Further consideration by the house of the Howell-Barkley bill to abolish the Railroad Labor board appears improbable until after the Christmas holidays recess.

The measure, in order on the first and third Mondays of each month, could have been called up Monday had early adjournment not been taken out of respect to deceased members.

On Monday, Dec. 15, it is planned to hold a congressional memorial service for Woodrow Wilson and the house is expected to pass its own memorial day. Kennedy's committee on the bill, retaining his intention of pressing it to vote, said he did not expect to make any progress before the first of the year.

A total of $238,000,000 or $51,000,000 less than the amount made available last year was carried in the interior department supply bill as reported Tuesday to the house, as best of the appropriation bill to receive committee approval. Its figures were well under the budget estimates.

Outstanding differences from the bill passed last year are reductions of $25,000,000, for army and navy pensions, made possible by a shrinkage in the number of pensioners; $4,300,000 for the reclamation service; $600,000 under the general land office. An increase of $773,000 was shown for the Alaska railroad.

The bill would carry out recommendations of the interior department for abolition of the office of surveyor general and consolidation of his work with the field surveying service, a change which would directly result in a saving of $147,000. This plan would also call for the abolition of 39 land offices and do away with the position of receiver at the remaining offices, at an estimated saving of $258,000.

The land offices which would be abolished next July under the bill include Crandon and Duluth, Minn., Wausau, Wis.

BILL IS ELIMINATED

The Spanish Springs irrigation project, the fight over which stopped all business in the senate last June, was eliminated from the interior department bill as presented Tuesday to the house.

Against a budget estimate of $500,000 for the project the committee decided to cut off the entire amount for which Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, has fought stubbornly, and which led him to conduct the filibuster which resulted at the last session in the failure of several appropriation bills.

Just prior to the reporting of the bill to the house, Senator Pittman had announced in the senate that satisfactory arrangements for the project had been included in the measure and for that reason he withdrew his protest which at the last session tied up the deficiency appropriation bill.

Senator Underwood, Democrat, Alabama, Tuesday presented a new plan for the operation of Muscle Shoals. He would dedicate the property to national defense, provide for either government or private operation for the production of nitrogen for explosives and fertilizer, and call for the construction of dam No. 8.

Democrats Will Sway Action Of Congress In Present Session

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1924 by the Post Pub Co.
Washington, D. C.—Six months of absence during which political lines have been definitely established have made the congressional heart fonder of the session which opened this week than was the case a year ago.

For if there is one outstanding characteristic about the meeting of congress this time it is the lack of uncertainty or sense of lost years. Everyone knows what is going on and he expects anything to happen that isn't on the program.

First of all the time of the session is fixed. It cannot go beyond March 4. President Coolidge has publicly stated his policy of trying to get everything possible accomplished as to avoid an extra session. Appropriation bills are the major task of the session. Little else usually is achieved at the short session and therefore there are ahead no great subjects for legislation like the tariff or income tax which might mean prolonged controversy. The effort to avoid an extra session is to be the principle relation to congress.

Just what the opposition to the administration in congress will do depends entirely on the Democrats. If they continue their coalition with the insurgent Republicans, this session could be made a political football for the next congressional campaign.

"Pop gun" bills passed in order to draw forth a veto might be projected again as they have been in the past when congress has not been in control of the same party as represented by the chief executive.

EXPECT LITTLE ACTION

A forecast of the present session of congress which seems at the moment justified by the sentiment of returning members is that little will be done between now and March 4 except routine business. And there is some reason to believe that the administration would be just as happy if only the routine were taken care of so the country might have another "rest" from congressional debate and legislation from March until December next.

Few presidents in recent years, however, have been willing to take the risk of non-action in the first year of their first term. That is the occasion as a rule for the making of a record. The congressional elections of 1926 really begin in the month of December, 1925, and thereafter when the congress would be expected to make its primary legislative record.

Members of congress usually are disappointed from legislation when they are watching possible opposition in their own primaries for renomination. The president may be compelled to change his mind and summon a session in April but the congress which started this week is going on the assumption that there will be an end of session on March 4, and that the months thereafter can be devoted to fixing up political fences back home.

Public Affairs BOARD REQUESTS 10 MILLION FUND

By Associated Press
Madison — Appropriation requests amounting to more than $10,000,000 for the next two years were submitted to the state board of public affairs by the board of control when hearings on budgets were resumed Tuesday. The budget provides for creation of a new hospital in northwestern Wisconsin.

Building appropriations totaling $3,922,775 are requested by the control board. The building program as advocated by the board includes a new hospital for insane, new equipped children's hospital, baby hospital, additions to the Northern Wisconsin colony and training school, Southern Wisconsin colony, state hospital at Mendota industrial home for women, Tomahawk camp and Sparta state school. Appropriations of $5,645,292, for the board of control itself are asked, $6,215,362 for penal and charitable institutions under its control and $670,070 for fuel and insurance making the budget total $10,138,137 for the biennium ending 1927. The budget is an increase of $4,859,023 over the appropriations made by the last legislature for the present biennium.

Nearly 200 new positions would be created under the budget advocated by the board and wage increases would be granted amounting to $147,000. The building program includes the following:

Mendota hospital $417,250; Northern hospital, Oshkosh, $171,475; blind school, Janesville, $77,000, state prison $129,700, Northern colony, Chippewa Falls, $685,500, state reformatory, Green Bay $142,000, Women's home, Taychedah, $303,400, Union Grove training school $38,915. A new in-state hospital to be known as the Northwestern state hospital also would be created for which $500,000 is asked.

ANCIENT INDIAN 'MOUNDS ONLY FEW MILES FROM CITY'

Wisconsin Abounds in Indian Earthworks, Prof. McHarg Declares

Thousands of citizens of Wisconsin reside upon or near Indian "effigy" mounds, without knowing the existence of these fascinating tokens of the departed culture of a great race, according to Prof. John B. McHarg, head of the department of American history, Lawrence college, here.

Effigy mounds, according to the educator, are most numerous in Wisconsin. They are, from his description, great animal pictures, ranging in height from a few inches to a few feet. Gradual weathering and the overhasty plow have obscured most of them, but thousands still can be traced, and some of them are still sufficiently distinctive to be of popular interest, especially those which have been preserved and protected.

Prof. McHarg states:

While the most famous effigy mound left to posterity is that of the thousand-foot serpent of Adams-on, Ohio, there are, however, a large number of nationally known mounds in Wisconsin. Four miles west of Appleton are several of the best known snake mounds of the world, according to the professor. Two of these monsters extend for more than half a mile. Edward Rices, who owns the major portion of one of these large snake mounds, recalls the time when it was at least ten feet higher. Commenting on other mounds, Prof. McHarg has this to say:

"The so-called Elephant mound of Grant-co, Wis., eight miles south of the Wisconsin river; the Man mound, a few miles east of Baraboo; the Lyng mound at Devil's lake, are fairly well preserved effigies, but there are literally thousands of others—great earth pictures of birds and animals, which suggest endless subjects of speculation and study."

"The Milwaukee museum is conspicuous for its research excavations and publications in this interesting field. Many persons would like to know why Indians took the great trouble of clearing forests and of building these extensive earthworks. The purposes are many. Effigy mounds probably were expressions of religious superstitions, the animal be-

HI-Y CLUB LEADS IN STATE CONTEST

This award is given to the clubs maintaining the highest standards possible in their work. The local club was presented with a picture of former President Harding as a prize. The other clubs honored were Kenosha and Madison East and Central.

Judson G. Rosebush of Appleton, a member of the international committee, spoke at the conference banquet Saturday night, and Harold Zuehlke of this city, state secretary, spoke Sunday morning at the Congregational church. Laurence Bohon, fifth vice president, spoke Sunday morning at the Episcopal church. Harold Eads served as a member of the report committee.

ROOSEVELT SCHOOL WILL BE FINISHED IN 3 WEEKS

Completion of the exterior of the Roosevelt, or east side junior high school, has been delayed because J. C. Nelson & Son, Minneapolis, contractors, are waiting for a shipment of cut stone which is necessary for the trimmings in the tower. Failure of this material to arrive has stopped the work on the tower, which is the last unit in the exterior construction. The material is white Bedford rock, and is expected from Indiana. It was due here by Nov. 25. Work on the interior is progressing rapidly and contractors believe they can complete the work in about three weeks.

ing a totem of tribe or individual in their presumably animistic system of religion.

"Perhaps these old moundbuilders have influenced or civilized more than we know. It is highly probable that settlers sometimes availed themselves of clearings or comparatively light timbered areas where the old civilization once flourished. We can learn much of the every-day life of the mound builder from the pottery, tools, weapons and other material remains. That they were nature lovers or nature worshippers can be gleaned from their works of art on such sites of picturesque beauty."

Troops will hold their usual meetings this week for instruction and drill.

P. O. Keicher, valley executive, has received a letter from Dr. George Fischer of the national scout headquarters, asking him to be in Chicago Wednesday to arrange the training course. This followed announcement that Knights of Columbus councils had indicated the course arranged by and for the order and offered gratis to scout councils. MORE PEOPLE ARE USING AIR MAIL

The demand for air mail stamps has increased slightly, according to information from the post office, and while it is the business houses and concern that make the most use of the service, many individuals desiring quick service are sending letters by this method.

In order to facilitate the identification of matter to be carried by air mail, the post office department has specified special envelopes. The envelope must be white, with red, white and blue stripes across it. The stripes must not exceed one-quarter of an inch in width and should be not less than one and one-eighth inches below the top of the envelope. The space between the three stripes must not exceed one-quarter of an inch, the entire space not to cover more than three quarters of an inch. Each envelope should bear the return address of the sender.

This envelope is for mail only and must be furnished by the sender.

Look at the array of talent shown in this advertisement. All the care-free gaiety of Broadway, of State Street, of "Main" Street, is concentrated in Victor Records. Paul Whiteman, Will Rogers, the Duncan Sisters, Sousa, Lauder—there isn't room enough for a full list of the names. But just as the Victor is supreme in the realm of more serious music so is it similarly supreme in the lighter fields of entertainment.

For either purpose—or for both purposes—Victor Records and Victrola Instruments have no equal—and no other purchase affords so much pleasure to so many people for so long a time.

Twelve Issues of The Journal Make the Perfect Gift

A dollar subscription for THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL is the ideal Christmas-to-Christmas gift for any home.

1—Giving The Journal is no more trouble than sitting down at your desk and reaching for your pen. You save the strain of crowded cars and the fatiguing struggle through Christmas throngs in the shops. You avoid the work and expense of packing, wrapping and mailing.

2—The Journal is a new gift every month; each issue is a fresh delight. Twelve times a year your thoughtfulness is gratefully recalled. Once chosen, the vexing question "What to select?" is answered for years to come; a renewal subscription brings repeated and increasing pleasure.

3—The Journal is appropriate and personal. Its twelve issues, each as rich and varied as the December number described on this page, cover every wholesome interest of the home.

4—The price of a year's subscription—just $1—seems absurdly small compared with the value of the stories, biographies and books of recipes, which alone would cost $40 if purchased separately. You can afford to give The Journal as a welcome additional remembrance to closer friends.

5—A charming announcement of each gift subscription, reproducing in full color an original Yuletide painting, will be mailed without charge, in your name, to arrive in the Christmas mail. How many friends may we help you to delight?

If you yourself are not now a subscriber for The Journal, add your order to your Christmas list. The only way to be sure of receiving every copy is to subscribe.

JOINT LABOR BUREAUS

The Russell Sage Foundation, whose civic and social surveys are valuable in a practical manner, recommends formation of employment bureaus everywhere under national, state and municipal supervision. The suggestion is based on a five-year investigation.

The joint agencies should be free, says the report. They would reduce unemployment, and factory managers would be sure of obtaining workmen. In strikes or disputes they would operate impartially.

The foundation's investigators do not take much stock in phrenology, mind reading or character analysis. "The temptation," they state, "to label people is very great, but the science and art of successfully so doing has not been discovered."

They do not think much of the practice of employment managers in "sizing up" applicants. The color of the eye means nothing; nor does the look in the eye; nor the condition of the hands, nor the color of the collar, nor the slant of the hat.

They discount methods of sorting out applicants by "types" or "personalities." "In fact, no system or method of character-analysis has yet produced results which justify its adoption or even suggests its trials in a public employment office."

In many cases persons are not what they seem to be. An uncouth, rough-looking man may be a genius. One who looks like a bum may have a reserve fund in the bank. One who looks prosperous may be a crook. The only way to read character is by actual test. A man is not what he looks like; he is what he is.

CROSSWORD PUZZLES

Midnight was approaching. The Pullman sleeper swayed with what would have been rhythm, had it not been for a flat wheel. In the smoking compartment sat three men. The youngest, in his thirties, lit a fresh cigar.

"I notice the country has gone bugs on crossword puzzles," said he. "A great many people seem to think it's something new. Why, one of my earliest recollections is working out things like crossword puzzles in magazines like St. Nicholas. That was 25 or more years ago. They were quite the craze in those days. And now, like a bolt out of the blue and for no apparent reason, the same craze again sweeps through the public. History repeats. There is nothing new under the sun."

"I spoke the middle-aged man, lighting a cigar. "The origin of the crossword puzzle is farther back than your childhood, young man. The Rev. Dr. Charles Francis Potter of New York City, in a recent sermon traced the crossword puzzle back to the tetragrammaton, a sort of magic acoustic which was one of the charms used in the Middle Ages to keep the devil away."

"It certainly gets my goat, the way so many people waste hour after hour of precious time on these fool things. If I could get my employees a third as interested in their work . . ."

A tolerant smile from the white-haired old man who had been listening as he gazed out into the night. He lit his pipe.

"I used to feel the same way about the crossword puzzle craze that swept the country 50 years ago. But the older I get, the more I realize that such things train the brain to be alert. Not to mention that they afford man an innocent, harmless hobby for relaxation in which his nervous tension is loosened and his brain recuperates.

"After all, why try to sweep back the tide with a broom? Crossword puzzles come in waves or cycles just as surely as business depressions, religious revivals, dancing crazes, disease pandemics and others of an endless list."

"Everything is cyclic, forever repeating. No one can explain it, except that cycles seem to be the pulsations of rhythmic psychic forces that play through the public like electric current through the filament of a lamp. Man is like a radio receiving set, through which play the impulses or vibrations from some distant and unseen broadcasting station. . . . I am an old man; and soon I may pass through the black tunnel and learn the secret. Who knows?"

WHEN THEY READ YOUR WILL

Wills are the most interesting and human of all documents. A will lays bare the real character and mentality of its maker. When a man sits down with his lawyer and frames the communication that is not to be opened and read until the grave has claimed him he occasionally displays deep wisdom and even a stroke of genius.

We have in mind the late Max Benjamin of Brooklyn, N. Y. He bequeathed to his son a considerable fortune in worldly goods, then indicated that he considered a legacy of advice quite as valuable as a bequest of money:

"It is my wish that he marry only one of his faith, and that he marry before he is 30. I direct also that he invest $15,000 in a business, preferably in the drug line, and that he always be in a business from which he can earn the necessities and possibly the luxuries of life. I warn him not to neglect his health and to take a vacation summer and winter. He is to invest $50,000 in real estate — income property — and to hold the same as an investment and not as a speculation."

Every father should make a will, even if he hasn't a dollar's worth of property. That which you have learned through bitter experience should be summed up in writing. No legacy could be more valuable.

A failure, in particular, should make a will. In it he should tell why he did not succeed. If he has really found the reason and can indelibly impress it on his son, it may be a fortune in disguise.

The greatest thing we get out of life is experience. And it is a grave mistake to let that experience be buried with us instead of passing it along, together with our interpretation of what this strange journey called life really means.

After all, property or insurance is the least important of the things we can will to our children. The memory of a happy home, of parents to be revered, and a childhood spent in a healthful environment—these are legacies beyond price. So is an education, also wise guidance.

TODAY'S POEM

By RAL COCHRAN

TOMORROW.

IT is easy to wait till tomorrow with the things that you should do today. The waiting gap leads to sorrow and you'll find that it seldom will pay.
We all have our tasks that need doing and those are the tasks that we shrink. It's worry and fret that we're brewing whenever we put off our work. When things must be done, and you know it, it's best that you do them today. A trial of this angle will show it will bring you satisfaction and in them you'll really find fun. If only you'll swing into action and pluck till they're thoroughly done.

In Japan dresses are bought by the pound and sold by the yard and you're one yourself when this really is true.

Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

X-RAY EVIDENCE.

There is still a good deal of misunderstanding among the laity about the diagnostic value of X-ray examination or pictures. This is in part attributed to the dishonest advertising of unprincipled charlatans and in part, I think, to the innate fondness of our plain people for being humbugged by anything novel or unusual or mysterious in the way of remedy or treatment. A childish notion which the quacks have propagated, namely that by means of an X-ray machine a doctor can look through the body and see just what is wrong within, leads many gullible persons to seek out an X-ray examination on their own initiative. This is foolish extravagance, as a mere matter of economy, it rarely forwards the diagnosis at best. It is advisable to seek an X-ray examination when the physician suggests it. Even when the physician indicates a definite object for the X-ray examination, the examination costs plenty and gives little enough useful information.

When too much reliance is placed on the X-ray evidence, error is likely to result. A Cincinnati internist recently reported a series of cases in which diagnostic errors had led to uncalled for appendectomy, seven cases in the series being those in which operation was resorted to on the assurance of the roentgenologist that the patient had chronic appendicitis. At operation the appendix was found normal or some other condition, overlooked by the X-ray expert, was found responsible for the patient's trouble.

Commenting upon such errors of diagnosis through too much reliance upon X-ray evidence, this internist says:

"Lastly, it must never be lost sight of that the roentgenologist, as his very greatest contribution to the diagnosis, can merely make certain anatomic observations and describe them. It remains for the clinician (that is, the patient's physician) to determine the bearing such findings have on the clinical history of the patient. Whatever the roentgenologist has to offer is merely one link in a chain. The responsibility resting on the clinician for a diagnosis remains."

Merely one link in the chain is all some people need to trip over.

The roentgenologist's contribution to the diagnosis, as the internist defines it, reminds me of the nurse's contribution to the protocol bar in our internship days. The nurse was required to report to the intern that the patient had ceased breathing. It was then the intern's prerogative to investigate, weigh all the evidence, and decide whether the information elicited by the nurse had any sinister significance.

The roentgen ray, when properly used, as defined in the paragraph I have quoted from the internist's report, may either positive or negative evidence of the utmost value in general diagnosis and all good physicians make daily use of its aid. A scalpel, a needle and a bit of ether come in very handy, too, if you're going to have your gallstones removed, say, but without human intelligence and skill in the application of these things in your particular case it would be very poor judgment to lay in a stock of these things before you visit the doctor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

The Weather.

I have what the doctor calls neuritis in my hands. Why are they worse before a storm? I am fond of all kinds of acid fruits. Is it harmful for me to eat them? (Mrs. J. F. C.)

Answer.—The fruit acids are generally healthful for one with neuritis. Possibly changes in atmospheric pressure influence the metabolism in some conditions, but just what do you mean by "before a storm"? Isn't it nearly always before a storm? A long while before a storm is not too long to fit the fancies of some invalids.

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

Tuesday, Dec. 5, 1899.

Lawrence university was apportioned $150,000 out of the $200,000,000 thank offering fund which the Methodist churches of the United States were trying to raise. Dr. Samuel Plantz, president of Lawrence college, was selected as vice president of the society in charge of this project.

Mrs. Victor F. Marshall was to leave for Chicago the following day to visit friends for the next few weeks.

Marriage license was issued by County Clerk John Montgomery to the Rev. Fred S. Wheeler of this city and Miss Bertha Titus of Kaukauna. The marriage was to take place the middle of the month.

Messrs. Young and Hobart of Oshkosh were negotiating with Appleton people to organize a corporation capitalized at $15,000 to establish a canning factory in Appleton.

Riverside Fibre company had just completed a sulphur warehouse 30 by 44 feet in size west of its plant.

C. W. Stribley of Kaukauna, formerly of Appleton, was presented with a diamond scarfpin by Oscar Thilmann. It was a testimonial of his service in managing the Thilmann Pulp and Paper mills at Kaukauna while Mr. Thilmann was abroad for five months.

Mrs. E. M. Jones was to entertain the Wednesday club the following day.

O. P. Manley of Ellington sold his farm for $4,500 and moved to Appleton.

Fifty thousand dollars more was needed to complete the campaign for the Myra Goodwin Plantz Scholarship for Lawrence college girls, which was to be built in the summer of 1915.

Governor-elect E. L. Phillip in an address at the Commercial club banquet the previous evening, declared that the governing of Wisconsin was too much in the hands of commissions.

Although the city's assessed valuation was boosting this year from $14,000,000 to $18,000,000, approximately, taxpayers were informed that their taxes would be lower than the year previous. This was due in part to a policy of the city commissioners of laying aside $30,000 a year for the last five years to create a fund so that it would no longer be necessary for the city to borrow money and pay interest to the banks.

Joseph McFarrier, 30, was killed when struck by Northwestern road switch engine last night at the North Division crossing.

Mrs. L. F. Bushey was hostess to the Tuesday afternoon. Magazine reviews were read by Mrs. A. J. Haupt, Mrs. W. F. Faulken and Mrs. H. G. Torrey.

Mrs. Adeline Behrent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Behrent, Main-st., and John Noss or Cicero, were married at high noon Sunday at St. John church. They were to reside at Cicero.

APPLETON'S ALLIES

"Even the heavens could not stop Marinette high school from defeating its oldtime rivals, Appleton," exults the Marinette sports editor. It must be very humiliating to Coach Kevin and his boys to know that even the elements were on their side. If that's what happens when the heavens are on Appleton's side, it's a lucky thing that God wasn't on her side also, says the Ed.

Did everybody notice the beautiful scenery about the post office last week? Whenever the postoffice boys felt a little chilly, all they had to do was to look out the north windows and they would think they were at Palm Beach.

An Appleton man was so pleased with last night's show that he's decided to send one of those bathing beauties a bathing suit as a Christmas present. We'll bet she'll be surprised when she opens that letter.

U. S. View

Special to Post-Crescent

Little Chute — A public hearing will be held at the office of the United States assistant engineer, Appleton, at 1:30 Dec. 22, regarding the highway bridge which crosses the government lock at Little Chute. It is said that complaints have been received by the war department that persons navigating the Fox river find the bridge an unreasonable obstruction to navigation by reason of delays caused by its inefficient and tardy operation and too inadequate and obsolete operating mechanism. The bridge has so small a clearance over the walls of the government lock as to prevent raising the walls in case of floods. Any residents of this village who are interested are invited to attend this hearing.

Q. How is tea grown in China? R. R. T.

A. The tea plant is cultivated in two varieties in China—Then, hohoa and then, varides in the provinces of Kwang-Tung, Fukien and Che-Kiang. The tea plantations are usually founded in a deep rich loam, never on low lands but on low hilly slopes. The leaves are gathered three times, in the middle of April, in the beginning of May, and when the leaves again are nearly formed. The first gathering yields the finest and most delicate tea, but with considerable injury to the plant.

Q. What is the circumference of the earth in natural miles at 60 degrees north latitude? L. M. T.

"Do you mean to tell me, Leslie," spoke up Jack, "and the tones of his voice cut like a rapier—"that you accepted a number of thousand dollars from Karl Whitney to buy back that jewel?"

"Yes, I did."

"Why didn't you send him back the jewels then and let it go at that?"

"I couldn't very well do this after having sold three of them to pay your gambling debts."

"My God, Leslie, I thought I knew you. If anyone had told me that you had done a thing like this, I would never have believed it."

"I expect you took the six thousand dollars which I sent to your dad on this last trip and redeemed the stones you sold."

"No, I have that six thousand dollars now."

"Then you never got the stones back?"

"Yes, I told Karl when I was in New York this last time what I had done: I explained that we had gotten in a very tight place. He insisted on buying the pearls back for me. He said the pearls meant much to him and he would not feel right if anyone else had anything to do in repurchasing them."

"To think that my wife should put me in a position like this with a former lover of hers! How much has Whitney paid out on those jewels?"

"About fifteen thousand dollars, I suppose."

"All right, I will have fifteen thousand dollars in a day or two with which I will go over to him with the pearls, and change the map on his face."

"Jack, I have promised Karl Whitney never to send him back the pearls."

"It makes no difference what you have promised. You are going to send him back."

"I don't understand how you can be so sure, Jack."

"And I don't understand, Leslie, how you could have been so disloyal to your husband."

"I haven't been disloyal to you, dear. Don't you remember that no wife could be more loyal to her husband than I have been to you? But I have also been loyal to the ideal of my childhood's sweetheart. Can you not see that Karl Whitney was perfectly innocent in the matter. Whitney was from the first intended those pearls should bring you back to him?"

"That is why he sent me this anonymous letter—the dirty cat!"

"Surely, Jack, you do not think Karl sent you that anonymous letter?"

"I certainly do. Who else could have sent it?"

Clavilux Will Rest Ear And Keep Eye Very Busy

There is no music in the Clavilux, in spite of its name. The beautiful chapel organ will speak to the ears when the audience enters the hall on Dec. 10, and prepares it with melody for what is ahead, but when the Clavilux starts the ear will rest and the eye only will be busy. Can you imagine it? Out of the dark and absolute quiet, exultate beauty and color and light will rise—so lovely in its stark loveliness that it almost hurts.

Indeed, there has long been an attempt to find in color some equivalent for music. It rests on the feeling, common enough, that there must be some color scale that corresponds to the scale in music. But all experiments have shown that however beautiful this dream may be, it has no psychological support; there is no exact relationship for us between sound and light; what sounds black to one ear sounds white to another; and scarcely two persons would agree as to what sounds represent green or blue or red. The rumor of the color-music experiments has given to this whole field of mobile color a fantastic hue from which Mr. Wilfred's work is free. His field is absolutely in the realm of light, the appeal entirely to the eye. Music has long held its place as the most ideal of the arts for it can convey the ideas direct and general; can put, for example, marching itself into our very feet. Mobile color has the same claim—to the ideal. It can convey a pure idea direct not to the ear but to the eyes. This is what the clavilux can do. All those who appreciate music and hold its place as the most ideal of the arts for it can convey the ideas direct and general; can put, for example, marching itself into our very feet. Mobile color has the same claim—to the ideal. It can convey a pure idea direct not to the ear but to the eyes. This is what the clavilux can do.

Used Kellogg's Bran 2 months—constipation gone after suffering 3 years

Three years of suffering with constipation. What happiness was his when Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, restored his health. But read his letter.

"Dear Sirs:—This is what I think of your krumbled bran. I would not be without it for anything in the world. For three years I used all kinds of medicines for constipation, and finally got to the point where I was advised by a doctor to use Kellogg's Bran, and since I began using it I don't have to take pills or anything else. I have used it two months, and my constipation has left me. I feel better, now than I have for three years. (The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran brings results because it is ALL bran. You can't fight constipation with halfway measures—with brans which are only part bran. It takes ALL bran to be 100 per cent effective.

Because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. It acts naturally—just as nature acts. It stimulates the intestine and makes it function regularly. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will refund your money.

Kellogg's Bran has a delicious nut-like flavor. Quite different from ordinary, unpalatable brans. You will like it as a cereal, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the recipes given on every package.

Eat two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's Bran every day—in chronic cases, with every meal. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

Cough Remedy Mother Gave Us Still Best

Pine Tar and Honey Bait All Modern Drugs

In thousands of families it has been the custom for many years to keep pine tar and honey always on hand for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, and throat irritations. Our mothers knew that it was good, that it often broke up the worst cough in 24 hours, and that it could be given to young and old alike, as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

And now we are told that in spite of modern medical discoveries there is still no better or quicker cough remedy. Doctors say the pine tar quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion that cause the coughing, also healing soreness, while the honey not only gives a pleasant taste, but helps soothe irritation.

The original compound, made up many years ago and used by millions of people, was Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. This is scientifically composed of just the right proportions of the pine tar, honey and other quick-acting healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in quick relief. If you want the original and the best, be sure you get Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey and nothing else. Only 30c. at any good druggist.

Plans for a Christmas party will be made by Fraternal Order of Eagles at the business meeting at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening in Eagle hall. Routine matters of business also will be discussed and the date for the party will be set.

Deborah Rebekah lodge will hold a regular business meeting at 7:45 Wednesday evening in Odd Fellow hall. Election of officers will be the special business of the meeting, and plans will be made for the Christmas party to be held at the next meeting.

DON'T PUT SEALS ON FACE OF MAIL. POSTOFFICE SAYS

Kaukauna Preparing for Big Sale of Christmas Stamps This Year

Kaukauna—Following its annual custom, Kaukauna Women's club, under the direction of its health committee, is again handling the sale of business seals, the proceeds of which are used each year in the fight against tuberculosis. Members of the health committee have decided to follow a plan established a few years ago, that of mailing seals to local citizens. It has been found this plan brings better results and eliminates the task of visiting from house to house.

All persons receiving seals also receive a letter asking them to either sell or retain the stamps. There will be no other method of selling the stamps and citizens have been asked to cooperate with the health committee by returning the required amount of money as soon as possible.

From the local postoffice comes an announcement relative to the use of the Christmas stamps. While there is no legislation regarding where they should be placed, the post office department is very much opposed to receiving mail with the seals pasted on the face of the envelope or parcel. All decorative stamps and seals should be put on the back of the mail.

The use of the seals is increasing. Large numbers of letters, especially those bound for foreign countries, have seals on the face. Wherever possible these seals are torn off by the postoffice.

DEBATE IS BOOKED WITH TWO RIVERS

High School Will Engage in Preliminary Contest Early This Month

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—The debate between New London and Two Rivers high school which has been pending for some time, has at last been scheduled to take place early in December, according to a statement made by Coach Stone Monday. Coach MacDougal of Two Rivers, in a letter to the local school, stated that everything was satisfactory to Two Rivers and that the latter was willing to debate New London before Christmas. He also stated that Two Rivers would debate with Shawano high school during the early part of the month.

Details have not been completed but it is thought there will be an "expert judge" hired who will be paid to judge the debate, and if agreeable to Two Rivers, make no decision at the close, but instead analyze the arguments of both teams, and point out the good and bad points in each team's debate. The debate will only serve New London as a preliminary, as the Red and White teams have had no experience this season.

New London high school will probably join the Wisconsin Interscholastic Debating league later. If it does so, it has the privilege of having two debate teams from Lawrence college come to New London and give a debate, thereby giving New London some valuable pointers, and endeavoring to help the schools joining it in every manner possible.

The places on the two New London teams were decided upon Monday. The negative will have Irene Martin as first speaker, John Mulroy as second and Lloyd Jost as third, while the affirmative will have Marie Fox first, Harold Holtz second, and George Rosenreiter third.

Only about 50 of the students have not subscribed for the paper, which is being sold at a subscription rate of 50 cents for the balance of the year. All of the advertising, which will consist of one and one-half pages of the four page paper, has been taken by four local merchants, and these were the first and only four visited.

The Monday Morning News will be printed by the Press Publishing Co. of this city.

Heart and Kidney Diseases Caused By Torpid Liver

Blood carries body poisons through the system to vital organs

To clear our systems of poison toxins that taint the blood and break down health, we must keep the liver regulated. Medical science now knows that the liver is our most important organ because it destroys the body poisons that cause diseases of the heart, kidneys, blood vessels, create high blood pressure and premature old age.

When the liver becomes torpid, these poisons, instead of being destroyed, are carried through the system by the blood. Then Nature gives quick warnings. You have sudden sick headaches, dizzy spells and nausea. If your stomach is acid from sour bile and your skin becomes sallow or blotchy, you may know poisons are in your blood.

The liver cannot be regulated by drugs, but there is a safe Nature substance which will act directly on the liver. The discovery is purified ox gall.

Get from your druggist a package of Dioxol. Each tablet contains ten drops of purified ox gall. In 24 hours the poison toxins will be removed. Your liver will be regulated. Blood purification will begin. Sallow skin will clear. You will feel so much better you will know you have found the cause of your ill health. Dioxol tablets are harmless, tasteless and cost less than two cents each.

These genuine ox gall tablets are prepared only under the name "Dioxol." If any tablet is offered you under another name, refuse it. Accept only Dioxol in the original, genuine package.

Sugar Coated Cod Liver Oil Tablets For Thin Kids

Forget the horrible tasting Cod Liver Oil and give the thin, puny, undeveloped children McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets if you want to give them a good appetite and put pounds of good healthy flesh on their bones.

Doctors know all about them and so does Schlitz Bros., Downer's Drug Store and all good pharmacists, for they are in great demand, because they are not laggard but show results in a few days.

They are not expensive either—60 tablets 50 cents, and children take them like candy.

One skinny woman gained 9 pounds in 24 days.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PLAN ADOPTED BY

NEENAH'S SCHOOLS

Board of Education Applies for $20,000 Insurance on Roosevelt Gymnasium

Neenah — Neenah schools will adopt the thrift system as prepared by the Winnebago Bankers association at a meeting in Oshkosh. The board increased the insurance on the new Roosevelt gymnasium to $20,000; appointed commissioners Young and Severson as a committee to take care of the insurance on the several buildings; paid bills amounting to $9,812.34 of which $8,159.41 is for salaries and $225.55 to the state treasurer for teacher pension. EXEMPTS CITIES FROM WAUPACA-CO DANCE HALL LAW

Board Makes Changes So That Only Country Places Come Under License Plan

Waupaca—Waupaca county board adjourned on Friday, completing all work piled up for the closing hour in a rush. An amendment to the dance ordinance was agreed on to allow the villages of Weyauwega, Elm Barras, Fremont and Iola to conduct dances under their own supervision and without a county license. The ordinance is now in effect in all other parts of the county except in Waupaca, New London and Clintonville and the above named villages are required to secure a license and must be policed by an inspector at each public dance. The license fee is ten dollars a year and ten dollars per dance. The law was enacted last year and was aimed at road houses and other resorts where there was lack of regulation. By a vote of 23 to 19 the board turned down the proposition to pave the road from Waupaca to the village home, but granted the city of Clintonville two new street pavements in 1925 with county and state aid. Waupaca county agricultural association which conducts the county fair at Weyauwega, was granted an appropriation of $2,500 for the construction of an educational building. The association was congratulated upon the success of the last fair which was declared to be the best on record. A sum of $300 was set aside for the purpose of making a better showing at the next state fair, with the dairy cattle exhibited shown by the county dairymen association. A committee elected at the recent county fair at the city hall met for the second time in the Miller building Friday evening for conference with J. T. Fitzgerald of Wausau an expert on factory canning. Nothing definite has developed. Unless some unforeseen difficulty arises Waupaca will be the home of another source of revenue for the farmers of this vicinity. These on the above mentioned committee are S. E. Sanders, chairman, Charles Hansen, secretary, C. Christensen, Fred Fisher, C. Holman, E. Smith, Mrs. Fred Montgomery, Robert Paulk, Charles Micko's, James Danca.

AUTO OVERTURNS IN DITCH; YOUTH KILLED

Waterloo—Alex Archie, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Archie, Waterloo, was killed Monday when the automobile he was driving on highway 59 ran into the ditch and turned over as the youth was attempting to pass another motor car. The accident occurred between Lake Mills and Jefferson Archie's neck was broken. He was alone in the car. He was employed as a sales man and is survived by his parents, two sisters and one brother. Charles Archie, an uncle of the dead boy, and his wife and three children, escaped with minor injuries Saturday night when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a car driven by a drunken driver on highway 19 near Hartland. A third car, a motor truck in trying to avoid the wreck, tipped over into the ditch with a load of fruit. John Bolger, a cattle buyer, was slightly hurt when his motor car overturned on highway 19, one-half mile west of Waterloo.

WISCONSIN HAS 20,000 MILES OF STATE ROADS

Madison—Wisconsin now has approximately 20,000 miles of highway within its state system, continuously maintained by the state and counties. The biennial report of the state highway commission submitted to Governor Blaine Tuesday shows. Counting state and local systems, there are more than 21,000 miles of roads under supervision in the state, the report states. During the past two years, the chief alteration of the state system has been the addition of 5,000 miles by authority of the last legislature, it is stated.

ADVERTISING DRIVE REACHES MILLIONS

In a recent issue of the Appleton Post-Crescent there appeared a special half page advertisement devoted to boosting Wisconsin. This same advertisement appeared simultaneously in practically every daily newspaper throughout the state as well as in half a dozen metropolitan newspapers such as the Chicago Tribune, New York Times, Detroit News and the Philadelphia Public Ledger. This advertisement is one of the "opening guns" of an intensive publicity and advertising campaign which will appear through 1924-25 in Wisconsin Daily Newspapers, metropolitan papers in the cities mentioned above, as well as in several of the leading advertising trade publications.

REACHES MILLIONS

In the course of this campaign more than twenty-eight million messages on the greatness of Wisconsin as a state and its supremacy as a sales market will be brought not only to the attention of our own people but also to the readers of metropolitan papers, to manufacturers, bankers, business men, salesmen, advertisers, sales agents, etc. The fund to carry out this broad and important program has been pledged by some 45 of the states daily newspapers, and calls for the use of approximately $90,000 worth of advertising. To the advertising managers of a number of Wisconsin papers goes the credit for conceiving the idea of this far-reaching state boosting campaign. After several months of preliminary work on the part of committees, the project was placed before a gathering of the states newspaper publishers in Milwaukee, and met with their approval and endorsement. Practically every daily paper in the state pledged itself to back the movement and expressed great faith in its possibilities.

that endures is naturally the most welcome—particularly when it promises lasting enjoyment as one of these fine lounging robes does. For utility, beauty and a constant reminder of the giver—the gift of a lounging robe—is the gift of gifts.

We have a fine selection of unusually attractive robes and coats—made of beautiful fine corduroy combinations—figured and striped and brocaded silks—wool materials with silk collars, cuffs and pocket trims—blanket materials in new and unusual patterns.

Barthelmess pictures, along with a distinctly different interest. Briefly, "Classmates" is the story of a poor boy of the North Carolina mountains to West Point, Iowa, is commission in a quarrel with another chap and finally redeems himself in an expedition into the South American jungle. The early scenes of "Classmates" have all the boyish charm of "Tolable David." The scenes at West Point, filmed with the special permission and co-operation of the United States government, present the United States Military Academy, the greatest melting pot of manhood in the world for the background of a dramatic story.

tion, "The Isle of Conquest," a Select special production, which will be shown at the New Bijou Wednesday and Thursday carries a variety of scenes as well as variety of action. Much of the action takes place on an isolated island in the South Seas, and on the island many effective locations figure as backgrounds. Also of particular interest are those scenes taken aboard a yacht. These passages show the yacht torpedoed at sea, and the subsequent shipwreck furnishes the incidents through which a man and woman find themselves alone on a small island. The atmosphere of the picture carried the air of good taste and good breeding at all times, with locale shifting from a fashionable boarding school of Palm Beach, and from other society centers to a tropical isle. KASPER SPEAKS TO STATE CHEESE MEN AT MEETING

Annual State Convention Will Be Held in Milwaukee Dec. 10 to 12

D. P. Kasper of Bear Creek winner of a national cheesemaking prize last year is one of the principal speakers on the program of the Wisconsin Cheesemakers' Association which will convene in Milwaukee Dec. 10 to 12 inclusive. John Cannon of New London, has been named as one of the judges of the exhibits.

This will be the thirty-third annual convention of the association and probably the largest ever held. It will take place in the Milwaukee auditorium. H. A. Rind of Clintonville, is president of the organization.

PRIZEWINNERS TO SPEAK

At this meeting a long list of new honorary members will be read. Prize winners at the state fair, the national dairy show and various district and county prizes will tell how the winning cheese was made. There will be an exhibition all brands of Wisconsin cheese as well as machinery and equipment for the manufacture of cheese.

Each exhibitor whose cheese scores above 88 per cent will be awarded a diploma signed by officers showing the highest, lowest and average scores of all cheeses entered. All exhibits are to be judged the day before the opening of the convention. In addition to the association awards, a large number of special cash and premium awards will be made by various firms and individuals.

MANY ADDRESSES

Officers and directors of the association will meet early on Dec. 10 at the office of the secretary. President Rind will call the convention to order. After an address of welcome by a member of the Milwaukee Association of Commerce, H. A. Kalk of Sheboygan Falls will give the response. The president will deliver his annual address and directors and officers will make their annual reports. Edwin Sutton, field man of the Wisconsin Dairy association, will give an address on cow testing.

Other speakers include R. F. Ott, Wausau; T. A. Uhlig, Glenbeulah; Mr. Kasper, Bear Creek; H. L. Noyes, Muskego; W. F. Hubert, Sheboygan; E. L. Aderhold, Neenah; Math Michels and William Winder, Madison. A discussion of winter dairying will be led by William Olson, Monroe. Cheese buyers' advice to cheesemakers will be given by H. C. Davis, Plymouth. John Ackerman, Monroe, and F. Grunert, Chicago. Discussion of various phases of the cheese industry, milk inspection, mode of making cheese, cheese history, and new grades will be taken up. The final day of the convention will be Swiss cheese day. Two banquets are scheduled for the evenings of Dec. 10 and 11.

HEAVY BUTTER YEAR KEPT PRICES DOWN

Change to Dry Feed When Freezup Came Blamed for Soaring Markets

Madison — The present high level of butter prices is a seasonal advance, although the rapid advance during the last week is unnatural and was probably caused by a shortage and brisk demand for fresh quality goods, the production of which has fallen off very rapidly during the last two or three weeks, declares a statement by state department of markets.

"The 1924 butter season has been one of large production due to a great extent to ideal climatic conditions," the statement says. "The moisture has been sufficient during the whole season to produce an abundance of grass and the production of butter has been one of the heaviest in history of the industry."

"There has been practically no advance in price since the June make when large quantities were placed in storage until about two weeks ago the ground froze and the farmers were compelled to place their cows on dry feed. On account of the high price of mill feed, farmers have not been giving their cattle proper attention which probably is the main reason for short make of fresh goods at this time."

JOHN M. KELLEY SELLS HOLSTEIN HERD DEC. 9

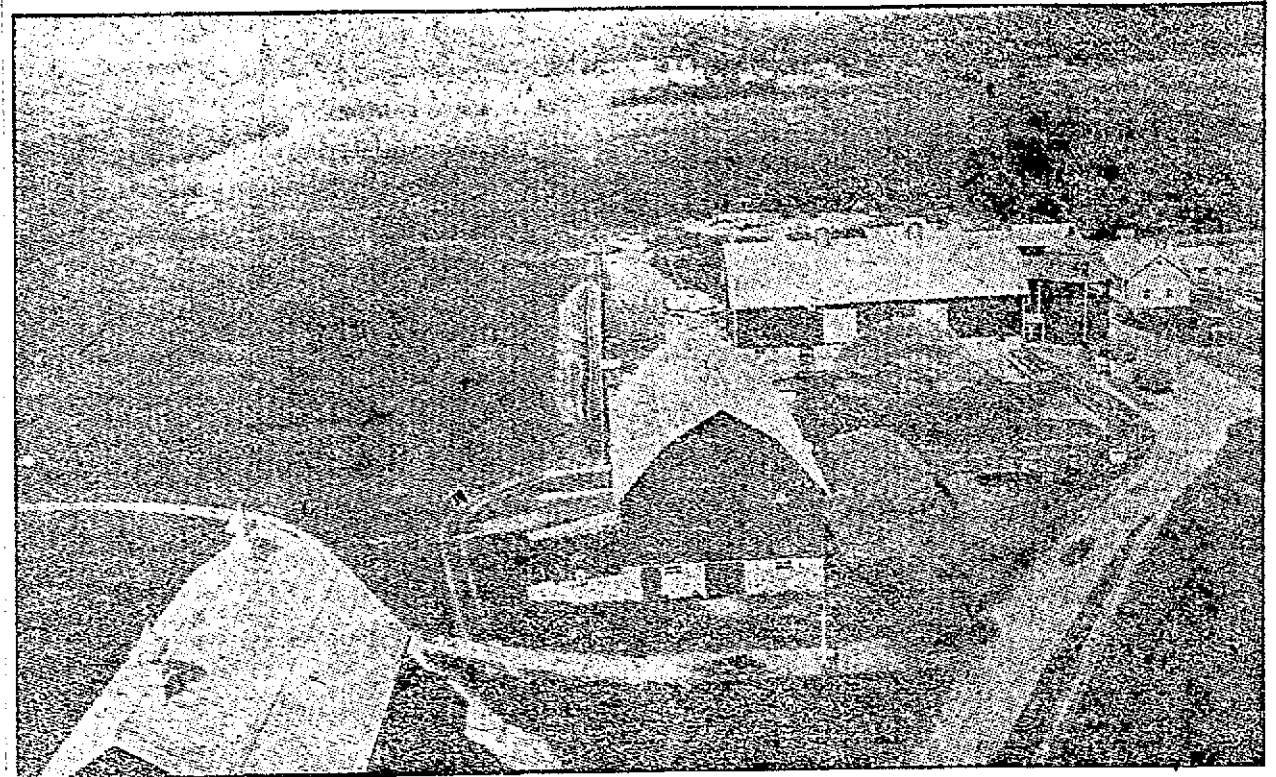

John M. Kelley, attorney and Holstein breeder of Baraboo, is to sell his entire herd of some of the best pure bred cattle in the state at an auction at the Rindling circus barn at Baraboo on Dec. 9. Mr. Kelley is well known to most farmers, as he has been at several sales in this county.

Mr. Kelley, finds he cannot devote his time between his law practice and the management of his farm and therefore is giving up the latter. He has been one of the staunchest advocates of purebred cattle on Wisconsin farms and has practiced that belief at his own place.

Waupaca County's Model Farm Proves What Good Management Can Accomplish

THIS VIEW, TAKEN FROM THE WATER TOWER AT WAUPACA CO ASTYLUM SHOWS THE PRINCIPAL BUILDINGS AT THE COUNTY FARM AND THEIR IDEAL ARRANGEMENT. ONE NEW STRUCTURE, A HORSE BARN WAS ADDED THIS SUMMER.

Waupaca—Farming with good business management back of it is a paying proposition, and no better example is given the farmers of Waupaca-co than the accomplishments at the county asylum, managed by Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hayward.

In the report of the asylum to the board of supervisors of Waupaca-co it was shown that the institution made a net profit of $5,720.39 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1924. Total cash revenue was $47,963.81 and the cash disbursements were $41,133.90. The showing is all the more satisfactory because permanent improvements amounting to $10,276.31 were paid for. The true gain over operation and maintenance expenditures amounted to $17,051.22.

BUILD NEW BARN

Among the improvements completed during the last year at the county were a new horse barn 40 by 65 feet with stone basement, a root cellar, cold storage, improvement in sun porch, machinery and equipment including silage cutter and new tractor.

Total revenue of the barn, farm and garden was $12,284.33. Expenses including interest on investment were $8,558.94, leaving a net profit for the farm of $3,725.39.

Modern building erected in recent years at the farm have helped to make it efficient and perhaps have made of the place a model that Waupaca-co farmers can utilize in developing their own places. The picture here-with shows some of the principal buildings.

HAS 139 INMATES

D. C. Hayward's report as superintendent for the same period put the population of the institution June 30, 1924 at 139, of which 83 were male and 56 female. His report also said patients came to Waupaca from 13 different counties and 8 from the state at large. Ten patients were self-supporting.

Butter, vegetables and seeds grains proved to be the chief source of revenue on the farm. The fancy work department conducted by the matron, Mrs. Hayward, was a source of revenue to the extent of about $1,000. She expended this money as she saw fit for such items as piano, phonograph, rug, chairs, flowers and needed things which would help to improve the home and buildings.

This record by Mr. and Mrs. Hayward is causing their yearly retention by Waupaca-co board as managers of the farm.

CLAM FISHING IS PAYING SIDELINE

BY W. F. WINSEY

Weyauwega — "Clams bite best from June 1 to Sept. 1 and on days just before a storm," says Ray Howe who with Walter R. Howe, his father, fished the Wolf and Waupaca rivers the past seven seasons. "They do not bite well on cold days in summer and they close up and do not bite at all in winter."

As a byproduct of their industry, the Howes have in their possession a large quantity of mixed slugs and small pearls and a small quantity of large and apparently perfect pearls, each of considerable value.

But pearl fishing as has been indicated is only a side line with the Howes. What they go after is the clam shell from which pearl buttons may be made. This season they have caught, prepared for market and trucked to button factory at Fremont, seven tons of shells running 40 bushels to the ton.

Twenty-three bushels of clams, a little more than a half ton, was their biggest day's catch.

Clam shells are not ready for the market when they are removed from the water. After they are landed

WAUPACA COW HAS HIGH STATE RECORD

Waupaca—Wisconsin's new champion cow for production of butter in 30 consecutive days as a senior four-year-old is Wisconsin Fobes Ormsby second, of the Phillip Erickson herd at Waupaca. Her record, as announced by the advanced registry department of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, is 514.3 pounds of butterfat, equivalent to 27.07 pounds of butter.

This production makes the animal the highest 30-day record daughter of Sir Pieterle Ormsby Mercedes, thirty-seventh, one of the breed's foremost sires, and displaces the record made by the former state champion cow of this class, Lady Johanna Pontiac Rag Apple, owned by Phillip Linker of Hartford, according to the department.

they are boiled 20 minutes in a large pan resembling a maple sugar evaporator to loosen the fleshy part. After the tissue is removed, the shells are ready for shipment.

FARMER RECEIVES LESS FOR HIS MILK THAN ONE YEAR AGO

Average Price for October and November Is $2.40 a Hundred, U. S. Report Shows

Average milk prices paid farmers have remained constant for the last two months in this locality, according to reports issued by the United States department of agriculture. They are lower than a year ago, however.

Twenty-one markets in the east north central states showed a price variation of $1.57 to $3.13 a hundred pounds during November. The average price was $2.24 a hundred, however, and this figure was the same for the month of October.

Prices paid farmers in November, 1923, were $2.67 a hundred pounds, 43 cents more than is being received now. The average for the United States during November was $2.73 and for October $2.87. Last year the country's average price was $2.90. Retail prices have experienced little change. Consumers are paying 9

MERCHANTS GIVE $100 IN PRIZES TO COUNTY PIG CLUBS

More Than 100 Are Eligible to Awards for Successful Hog Culture

More than 100 boys and girls of Outagamie-co who are members of pig clubs this year, are eligible to competition for prizes that are to be donated by a group of Appleton merchants.

Cards have been sent out by Robert A. Amundson, county agricultural agent, to pig club members urging them to keep their records in good shape for this contest. Although a considerable number of members has already marketed pigs and realized a good profit, others are still feeding their pigs to be marketed at a later date.

Appleton merchants through the agency of Mr. Amundson and the Appleton Chamber of Commerce have agreed to donate approximately $100 to be distributed in the form of small prizes ranging from $1 to $5. The prizewinners will be selected just as soon as all members have reported on their year's work.

Of All Major SchoolsRecord of 1924 Is Freakiest of Most Unusual Season in Football of Big Colleges

Uncrossed goal lines are a thing of the past in modern football.

Not so many years ago a number of teams at the close of the season could point with pride to the failure of the opposition to score.

Those happy days are no more.

Not a single major college football team in the country has been able to blank its opponents during the 1924 season now drawing to a close.

University of Alabama was the last team to fail by the wayside. In its first six games of the season Alabama held the opposition scoreless.

In the seventh game, Kentucky university managed to cross the Alabama goal line. That Centre followed with one of the upsets of the year by defeating Alabama 17-0.

UNCERTAINTY ADDS THRILL

Recently in discussing the upsets of the present season with a prominent football coach, he enthused when I mentioned that not a single major team had escaped being scored on.

"There you have the reason for the immense popularity of the game, the added uncertainty that the forward pass, the open game has supplied."

"No longer is any team hopelessly outclassed. There is always a chance for the underdog to do something."

"The public likes the thrill that comes with uncertainty. That is why all season football enthusiasts the country over have packed the many big stadiums."

CASE OF NOTRE DAME

The Notre Dame eleven of this year is a marvelous combination, one of the greatest teams of all time yet it has been scored on in four of its games.

Andy Smith's great University of California team was scored on in five of its first nine games. Yale has five times felt the scoring sting of the opposition, and Dartmouth on several occasions.

In some games the opposition has run its score to very respectable figures. Take the Illinois statistics. Zuppke's team, Chicago made 31 for a tie, while Michigan, although beaten, totaled 14.

A number of reasons are possible for the unusual scoring conditions of the present season.

FORWARD PASS POTENT

Unquestionably the greater use of the forward pass has been a potent factor. Coaches are resorting to it as a scoring weapon rather than merely a threat or last resort play.

The abolition of the artificial tee has also played a part. While the usual distance on kickoffs is possible the ball is driven low and fast to the rear backs, giving them a chance to get under way behind well informed interference before the opposition can get down on the kicks.

With the artificial tee, great height could be attained on the kickoff and long returns were the exception. This year any number of games have been featured by a run for a touchdown from the kickoff.

The football season of 1924 has been dotted with freak happenings none more unusual than the fact that not a major college eleven can point to an uncrossed goal line.

Madison—Seven members of the board of directors of the Wisconsin "W" Men's association, in conference here Monday, sanctioned, in resolutions, the naming of a new athletic director to succeed Tom Jones, whose resignation has been tendered and came up for acceptance before Wisconsin's athletic council and the athletic committee of the board of regents Monday night. The committee held a closed meeting and gave out no announcements.

The resolution covering the athletic director situation read: "It is the opinion that Wisconsin needs a responsible man at the head of the athletic department with authority to conduct the department in a manner that will place Wisconsin in athletic organization on a par with other Big Ten schools."

TICKET SALE CHANGE ASKED

Another resolution pertains to the publicity system now in use and suggests that "this department should immediately be improved and developed."

Regarding ticket sales, the "W" men suggest "that orders for tickets be confirmed or denied in a reasonable time after receipt of their order whether they will receive tickets." Complaints on this matter have been especially numerous, it was reported.

An effort should be made to schedule the Chicago game, the season's final contest, at Chicago in alternate years because of the greatness of the attention due to its traditional aspects another resolution declares.

RYAN AT FOOTBALL PARTY

Jones undoubtedly will remain as head track coach at the university. Who his successor as athletic director will be is not known. The names of several men have been mentioned, including Coach Meenwell of the basketball team and Guy Lowman of the baseball team.

Jones declared that Ryan probably will arrange Wisconsin's football schedule at the conference meeting at Chicago next Saturday. Other Wisconsin coaches did the same until Rich ard resigned when Jones took up the job.

Jones of course will go to the meeting to arrange the track schedule for his team. He will also arrange schedules for minor sports in which regular coaches will not make the trip down.

Wisconsin will have five coaches at the meeting. Ryan will attend to the football, Lowman to the baseball, Stelnauer to the swimming, Hitchcock to the wrestling and Jones to the track and the other sports.

AL RUSSELL SHADES
ZWICK IN MILWAUKEE

By Associated Press.
Milwaukee—Frankie Monroe, Pacific coast featherweight, outpointed Joe Azarella in the eight-round winnow here Monday night. Monroe won the first six rounds easily.

In the semiwinnow Billy Borthfeld stopped Don Davis in eight rounds. Bob Miller stopped Frank Speerless in two rounds. Eddie Macey and Joey Klein fought a draw in four rounds. Al Russell shaded Jack Zwick in six rounds.

BELOIT, RIPON AND HAMLINE BASIS OF
BLUE GRID PROGRAMNegotiations Now Underway
Promise Strong Schedule for 1925

Games with Beloit, Ripon and Hamline will form the skeleton of the 1925 Lawrence football schedule, according to an announcement by A. C. Denney, athletic director. Originally it had been planned to arrange another game with a Big Ten school but this year's experience at Iowa came near being costly when Jake Stoll was injured in the game, and while Lawrence made an excellent showing and obtained almost nationwide advertising the risk is thought to be too great to warrant a repetition.

It is probable that several games with some of the strongest squads in the middle west will figure in the schedule and negotiations now are underway with some of the foremost colleges in the state.

Until the controversy regarding the continued existence of the Little Five conference is settled definitely, Carroll and Northwestern will be left out of consideration.

It is Denney's plan to schedule some of his hardest non-conference games at the beginning of the season to get his men on edge for Little Five and Little Eight contests later.

Milton—Coach George O. Crandall now in his fourth year as director of athletics at Milton college will pit his basketball proteges against some of the fastest and strongest fives in the state this season, according to the schedule as partially completed.

Marquette, Lawrence, Carroll and Ripon colleges furnish the principal draying cards, but the team will take on several strong normal school teams as well.

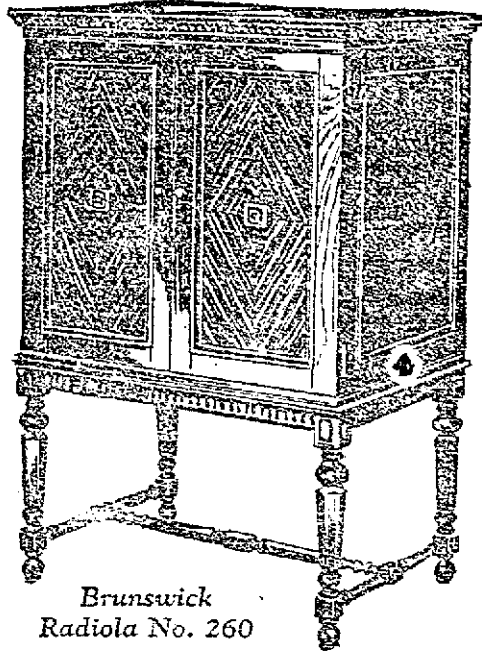

Crandall reports prospects as being very promising. He has nine regulars reporting and a good string of recruits in reserve. The veteran squad prospects are Robert Mathie, Franklin Bentz and Merton Sayre of Milton, Otto Dillner, Superior and Emil Samuelson, Port Wing, veteran forwards include Mathie and Robert, Eudick Milton, Carroll Hill, Wilton Iowa, Lloyd Seager, Albion; Lawrence Marls, Nortonville, Kansas and William Clover, Fort Atkinson, Bentz also doubles at center.

Among the recruits there are three candidates for center positions. They are Carl Otto, Wisconsin Rapids, Wilford Allen, Neillsville, and Melvin Chadee, Milton. Graldon Moisan, Edgerton and Charles Savre, North Loup, Neb. are prospecting for forward positions while Chadee also plays that line. The recruit guard possibilities are Howard McNitt, MU and Clarence Ruendling, Fort Atkinson.

The following tentative schedule has been arranged:
Dec. 10—Milton at Marquette university.

Dec. 18—Milton at Carroll.
Dec. 17—Milton at Lawrence.
Dec. 18—Milton at Ripon

WARE RECEIVERS COME IN THREE VARIOUS TYPES

Line Is Representative of Price and Radio Furniture Development

The Ware Receivers. Come in the six different types of receivers manufactured and marketed by the Ware Radio Corporation.

The Ware line of Receivers Representative of Price and radio furniture development.

Radio receivers housed in furniture cabinets are becoming more and more in demand. The Ware line includes three table models, or models intended to rest on tables, an three upright furniture models with legs resting on the floor.

There are three different electrical circuits in the Ware line of Receivers: a three tube dry cell reflexed circuit, a four tube dry cell reflexed circuit and a five tube non-reflexed storage battery circuit.

What is meant by reflexing? Using the same tube for both radio and audio amplification.

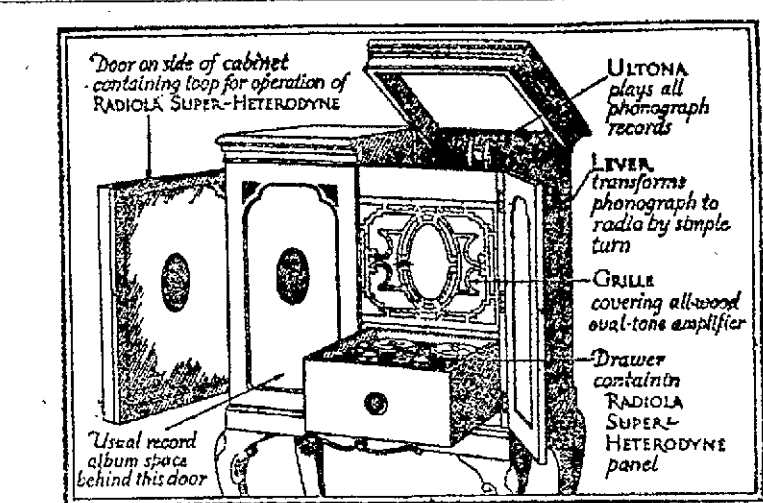

How many tubes are reflexed in each of the two Ware reflexed circuits?

One.

What is the volume of sound reproduced by the Ware reflexed circuits?

Remarkably great, more than ample for home use.

Reflexing gives each of such circuits the power of one more tube than

RADIOLA BRINGS AIR MYSTERIES INTO YOUR HOME

Brunswick Set Is Greatest
Achievement of Day, World
Authorities Say

Whatever may be your conception of the musical possibilities of radio, or of complete home entertainment, you are urged to hear now this remarkable new instrument, the Brunswick Radiola.

For here, combined in joint effort by the leader in musical production with the leader in radio is what world authorities pronounce the outstanding musical achievement of the day.

All the music of all the world at your command at a turn of the lever; you have radio's greatest thrill—the wonderful Super-Heterodyne or Radiola—comes to bring the mysteries of the air into your home! Tonal possibilities multiplied by the internationally acclaimed Brunswick Method of Reproduction, which now does for radio what it did for music.

At another turn, you have the recorded music of all time at your command—your favorite records played as only a Brunswick can play them. Nothing in music—music in the making, music of yesterday, today, tomorrow, is thus beyond your reach. Consider what this means to you; the advantages it offers to your children. The superlative in radio, the superlative in phonographic music, in perfect combination.

A scientific creation—not a makeshift, that is why the Brunswick Radiola occupies immeasurably a unique position in its field. An instrument you can buy with positive assurance of lasting satisfaction and permanency.

An instrument developed scientifically by the Brunswick Laboratories in connection with those of the Radio Corporation of America. Hence the embodiment of the best that men know in music and in radio.

Not a makeshift, simply a receiver set in a mahogany cabinet, a scientific creation—the ultimate of today.

First hear this instrument. Then let us explain how easy it is to obtain one. Irving Zuehlke has them on display.

OSCILLATION IS PREVENTED BY FRESHMAN UNITS

Test Made by Experts Prove Masterpiece Equal to Any
Five-tube Set

The improved design of the Freshman Tuned Radio Frequency Unit in which close coupling and a special form of winding in which the primary and the secondary are interwoven prevents the set from oscillating within itself.

The Freshman Masterpiece Tuned Radio Frequency Unit consists of the Masterpiece coil and improved low loss condenser. The combination of the two make the lowest loss tuning unit ever devised or used in a receiving set.

Complying with the demand for low loss highly efficient products, we have successfully introduced in a Tuned Radio Frequency Unit, a non-oscillating, self-balanced coil known as the Masterpiece coil. This coil is self-supporting and does not require inductor, celluloid cement, nor is it wound on Bakelite or any other sort of tubing. All of these supporting materials and substances used in the manufacture of other coils cause absorption losses and increase the distributed capacity of a coil.

The Masterpiece coil has none of these disadvantages. The magnetic field of the Masterpiece coil is entirely within itself, thus eliminating the effects of stray fields, or interference between different stages of Tuned Radio Frequency. It is so designed to get the maximum range of wave length when used with a Freshman low loss variable condenser.

The interior sub-panel of the Freshman Masterpiece Receiver, through these Tuned Radio Frequency Units are used. Due to the fact that they are most carefully calibrated and that the coil are self-balanced, you can positively rely upon getting the same station each time at the same dial setting.

Fine, genuine solid mahogany cabinet, attractive front panel of three ply mahogany veneer—such as is only found in very expensive sets—large heavy Bakelite, inch dial, entire assembly is on the sub-panel, eliminating all body capacity and panel leakage.

Tests made by leading radio engineers and technical editors of the important newspapers in various sections of the country, have proven that the Freshman Masterpiece is equal, if not superior to any five tube receiving set on the market. The Appleton Electric Co. specializes on Freshman Masterpiece sets.

PHILCO IS ONLY BATTERY MEETING WIDEST DEMANDS

Three Cells Assembled in Strong Monobloc Container of Pressed Glass

The Philco is the only radio battery which meets the demand for a spray-proof, self-indicating, 6-volt storage battery for use in any room in the house, either exposed or inside of a fine cabinet set.

Its neat and attractive appearance makes it a worthy companion for the finest of sets.

The three cells are assembled in a strong monobloc container of clear pressed glass permitting the plates and separators to be easily inspected. High and low water level lines, molded in the glass, indicate how high to fill the cells and how low the level may be allowed to go before adding water.

The tightly sealed covers are made with a new vent construction by which only dry gas passes out when charging, thus eliminating the usual acid spray. The vent tubes should not be removed when charging or at any other time.

Ordinarily water need be added only once in two or three months and then is poured into convenient funnel-shaped vent tubes without unscrewing them.

The cells are permanently connected in series with welded lead connectors. Flexible cable terminals, welded to the terminal posts, have Fahnestock clips, making the connecting up of the battery simple and convenient.

A visible charge indicator which shows at a glance the exact state of charge of the battery is a valuable and original Philco feature of great importance. Visible through the glass at one end of the battery, it eliminates fussy with a sloppy hydrometer. This built in indicator consists of two balls of different densities enclosed in a hard rubber cage. These balls rise and fall as the specific gravity of the electrolyte changes during the charge and discharge of the battery. When both balls are up, the battery is fully charged. When one ball is up, and one down, the battery is partially charged. When both balls are down the battery should be recharged.

The progress of the charge can be noted by the rising of first one, then the other ball.

This accurate and reliable charge indicator removes the uncertainty and guesswork from the charging and use of a battery; it adds a new fascination which can only be appreciated by experience. Philco products include Radio A and B Batteries, made in various designs to meet the need of every set owner. Philco batteries are now on display at the Jimmie Burke Service Station in the Langstadt-Meyer building.

ATWATER-KENT PARTS ARE GOOD FOR LIFETIME

Only Best of Materials Used for Parts Which Get Most Wear

Every mechanical contrivance must wear out in time, but those parts subject to wear in Atwater Kent Radio Equipment are made of such high grade materials and are so cleverly designed as to last a lifetime if treated with ordinary care.

Bakelite is used generously for dials, panels, knobs, and other parts where looks, strength and electric non-conductivity are essential.

All metal parts are protected from moisture by heavy coats of baked enamel or double coats of lacquer.

Truly it can be said that there is nothing to wear out in Atwater Kent Receiving Sets or Loud Speakers.

Their first cost, therefore, is their only cost. The only expense incurred in their operation is for the electric current consumed—a trivial sum at most.

But no matter what model Atwater Kent Receiving Set you desire—no matter whether it has four, five or six tubes or whether it is of the open or enclosed cabinet type, its operation is essentially the same.

While the number of the dials varies on the various sets, they are all tuned in the same manner—by turning the dials to right or left, so that the numbers engraved on each of them are kept in step.

This simultaneous turning of the dials, together with a few simple instructions accompanying each set, is all that is necessary to pick up broadcasting signals and tune them in to maximum volume and clearness. Any child can do it, and in the hands of an expert tuner is accomplished with truly surprising rapidity.

Many types of radio receiving sets deliver a sufficient volume of sound from distant broadcasting stations, but they are not selective—that is, they cannot separate two stations, both broadcasting at the same time on waves of nearly the same length.

Atwater Kent Receiving Sets overcome these difficulties to a marked degree, so that two or more stations broadcasting at the same time can be separated and the desired station tuned in clearly and without troublesome interference.

This is one of the main reasons why Atwater Kent receivers are held in such high esteem by experienced radio operators. For a demonstration call on the West Side Tire Shop.

WILLARD STATION BOOKS EXCELLENT TALENT FOR DEC. 6

WTAM Will Broadcast 3-hour
Concert for Benefit of Pacific Coast

WTAM, the Willard station at Cleveland has booked some excellent talent to give a special program to start at 2:00 a. m. eastern standard time on the morning of Saturday, December 6.

The concert which will last from two to three hours, is being broadcast for the benefit of Pacific Coast listeners who cannot break through their local stations for early eastern broadcasting.

By starting at two o'clock in the morning, both eastern and western stations will be silent and the Willard station will have the air practically to itself. Receiving sets everywhere will experience a minimum of interference while transmitting conditions will be the best.

The headline on the special WTAM program will be Eddy Peabody, a most versatile young man, who plays more instruments than he has fingers to play them with. He has a full complement of digits too. To hear him operating on his banjo, one would think he had four hands instead of two.

Nor is the banjo the only instrument that is exalted by his touch. The lovely ukulele, laughed at and frowned upon in his hands is endowed with a soul, almost. And the guitar, that instrument of romance, barred balconies, bull fights and dark haired serenades! One would almost think Eddy was true Don Juan instead of a native son of California born of Yankee parents.

From the Spanish guitar he will go to the Steel Guitar of the Pacific Islands and at once you are transported to tropic beaches where dusky maidens hula-hula under palm trees. Eddy can, and probably will, take

APPLETON RADIO SHOP OPEN NIGHTS FROM DEC. 1

Starting Monday, Dec. 1, the Appleton Radio Shop is open evenings. Service calls will be made up till ten in the evening. Two service cars and several experienced radio men are employed to handle all repair work and installations. Free information concerning radio is to be had at all times. In as much as the Shop can supply any radio set this information is important. For those who wish to build their own set the Radio Shop furnishes a complete catalog of parts as well as a diagram or circuit of any set. Special meters for testing tubes and batteries are used to make all work more accurate. The Appleton Radio Shop is a member of the Radio Dealers Association of Appleton and is governed by the rules suggested by that association. No radio dealer in Appleton offers as efficient service. No dealer has a more powerful receiver than the 5 tube Kennedy. Night service till ten at a minimum service charge of 75c.

WTAM WILL GIVE FANS OPPORTUNITY TO VIEW STATION

Miniature Model Is Exact in Detail Down to Insulators and Antennae

Thousands of radio fans all over the country have heard WTAM, Cleveland's largest broadcast station. Now they are going to have an opportunity to see what it looks like. The equipment engineering service of the Willard Storage Battery Company, has just completed a miniature model of WTAM that is exact in detail down to the insulators in the antenna.

The model, showing the towers, the building and the surrounding grounds, is mounted on a table and will be shipped all over the country for display purposes at radio shows and exhibits.

A special arrangement of Willard batteries provides lights inside the miniature bungalow. The reproduction is in exact proportion and made to scale from blue prints and specifications used by the contractors in building the original.

With the station model on its tour of the country, goes a large wall map of the United States and portions of Canada and Mexico. This map is studded with tiny electric lights wherever there is a broadcasting station using Willard radio batteries for power. There are more than 160 of these stations in the country and more are being added daily.

The grouping of the lights* shows not only the wide spread use of the Willard broadcasting station but also the important radio centers. Around the edge of the map is a list of the stations represented by the lights. The wiring of the map is designed to use a Willard battery for lighting purposes.

Keep the date and hour in mind, Saturday, December 6, at 2:00 a. m. eastern standard time.

It has. The disagreeable noises characteristic of reflex circuits have been eliminated in the Ware reflex circuits.

What is the advantage of the Ware 5 tube, storage battery, non-reflexed circuit over the reflexed circuits of the Ware line?

It produces about a fifth more volume of sound, which some purchasers desire.

What type of antenna do all the Ware Receivers employ?

The open type, viz., an elevated wire from one binding post and a ground connection from the other.

What type of radio receivers does the Ware Radiola Corporation manufacture?

Neutrodyne Receivers.

This receiver, embracing many advantages which embody the famous inventions of Prof. L. A. Hazeltine, by means of which coupling between the various parts of its circuit are neutralized, insuring maximum efficiency at all wave lengths.

It will pick up the feeble electrical impulses from distant broadcasting stations.

It has the ability to pick out one program at a time and exclude the others.

It is able to tune in a given wave-length at all times with a given setting of the dials.

The setting of their dials never vary for a given wave-length with the same antenna and the same antenna binding post.

Representative receivers reproduce distorted signals when they are manipulated into their most sensitive states.

Owing to the efficient design of the Ware Neutrodyne Receivers, no satisfactory improvement can be obtained with a separate rheostat for the detector tube.

The Ware Neutrodyne Receivers are sold and serviced by the Meyer-Seeger Music Co.

RUSSIA PLANS TO DEVELOPE FISHING BANKS IN ARCTIC

Soviets Make Strenuous Efforts to Stretch Source of Food Supply

Archangel, Russia.—Soviet Russia made strenuous efforts last summer to develop her sea fisheries as a source of food supply, and in this connection, it was announced recently, new fishing grounds have been discovered of Jugurisk Schar in Arctic waters adjacent to Russia. The new fishing banks were located quite by accident.

It was during a cruise of the steamship Malygin, of 1,500 tons, with Russian sea scientists aboard, who were doing research work for the purpose of studying matters pertaining to the biological, hydrographical and meteorological problems of the Polar regions that great schools of fish were encountered. Further investigations in the same waters, off Jugurisk Schar, revealed that the fish made their "homes" there in great numbers. It is said to be the most northerly fishing banks in the world.

There are indications, not only on the Archangel coast, but in Northern Norway as well, that the Russians are going in for deep sea fishing on a much larger scale than at any time since the revolution. Formerly the "Russian trade" was a main feature of such Norwegian towns as Vardo and Hammerfest. As far back as the fifteenth century the Pomors fished and traded along the Norwegian coast. Gradually in the eighteenth century the fishing passed into Norwegian hands, the Russians confining their attention to the purchase and shipping of the catches. In the five years ending in 1912, more than 140,000 tons were thus purchased, much of this going to England. With the war and the revolution this trade vanished, but now Russia has begun to buy fishing craft

EXAGGERATE REPORT OF MEXICO'S RENO

By Associated Press
Houston, Tex.—A report that Progresso, Mexico, has become a Mexican El Reno at that divorces are easy to obtain on almost any ground after 30 days residence, has become so widespread that the agents of a Galveston steamship line, whose ships touch at Progresso, have been besieged with requests for passage to that port.

Harmenigold Valdes, Mexican consul at Houston, however, is not sure that the information is accurate. Generally speaking, Mr. Valdes said, divorces are governed by a federal statute passed in 1917 which requires a residence of approximately one year for the divorce petition.

"He must," Mr. Valdes added, "have good grounds for his action and must be prepared to submit proof of the allegations in his petition. In other words, the machinery for obtaining divorces in Mexico is much like it is in the United States."

More than 100 inquiries for passage to Progresso, one of them from California, have been received at the Galveston steamship offices.

Civil Service Examination Will Be Held at Postoffice on Saturday

Applications are coming in fast at the postoffice for the clerk-carrier examination which will be held on Saturday morning here under the direction of the civil service board. Those who wish to enter should get their application blanks immediately from Herman J. Frank, assistant postmaster, who is secretary of the board.

PUT FINISHING TOUCHES ON HIGH SCHOOL OPERETTA

"The Nautical Knot" Full of Comedy and Excellent Music

The finishing touches are being put upon "The Nautical Knot," the light opera that the glee clubs and orchestra of Appleton high school will present Friday night in Lawrence Memorial chapel, under the direction of Carl McKee and Miss Ruth McKennan, both of the high school faculty.

The cast has been working steadily in conjunction with the chorus of 150 voices and a large orchestra, and the consensus of opinion is that those who attend the performance will be well pleased.

Miss Charlotte Schuelke is to take the part of Julia, a haughty, proud and selfish belle of Barnastople, where the scenes of the opera are laid. The sailors are all in love with her. The conformation of the other girls. She turns to Barnabas, strolling artist in search for beauty. Robert Mitchell takes the part of Barnabas.

Nance, the contralto lead sung by Miss Florence Downer, is a quiet and sad miss, grieving for her sailor lover, whom she believes has deserted her for Julia. Her lover is Joe, played by Eugene Cole, who has never forsaken her, but has been parted from her by a misunderstanding.

Old Bill Salt, the "old sea dog," wants to keep away from women and from "getting spliced" until he sets eyes on Julia. However, just on the eve of marriage, he is filled with trepidation and is greatly relieved when Barnabas returns to claim Julia. Bill loves to shock everyone with his wild tale of the sea.

The character is an interesting one and is said to be well played by Alan Harwood.

Other young people who will take part are: Marie McCloskey, Miriam Penbody, Phyllis Orstein, Annette Post, Dona Hermann, Alberta Schulz, Clair Miller, Harold Eads and William Meyer.

PUT FINISHING TOUCHES ON HIGH SCHOOL OPERETTA

"The Nautical Knot" Full of Comedy and Excellent Music

The finishing touches are being put upon "The Nautical Knot," the light opera that the glee clubs and orchestra of Appleton high school will present Friday night in Lawrence Memorial chapel, under the direction of Carl McKee and Miss Ruth McKennan, both of the high school faculty.

The cast has been working steadily in conjunction with the chorus of 150 voices and a large orchestra, and the consensus of opinion is that those who attend the performance will be well pleased.

Miss Charlotte Schuelke is to take the part of Julia, a haughty, proud and selfish belle of Barnastople, where the scenes of the opera are laid. The sailors are all in love with her. The conformation of the other girls. She turns to Barnabas, strolling artist in search for beauty. Robert Mitchell takes the part of Barnabas.

Nance, the contralto lead sung by Miss Florence Downer, is a quiet and sad miss, grieving for her sailor lover, whom she believes has deserted her for Julia. Her lover is Joe, played by Eugene Cole, who has never forsaken her, but has been parted from her by a misunderstanding.

Old Bill Salt, the "old sea dog," wants to keep away from women and from "getting spliced" until he sets eyes on Julia. However, just on the eve of marriage, he is filled with trepidation and is greatly relieved when Barnabas returns to claim Julia. Bill loves to shock everyone with his wild tale of the sea.

The character is an interesting one and is said to be well played by Alan Harwood.

Other young people who will take part are: Marie McCloskey, Miriam Penbody, Phyllis Orstein, Annette Post, Dona Hermann, Alberta Schulz, Clair Miller, Harold Eads and William Meyer.

There is a great increase in passenger travel now because many people, especially traveling men, are putting their cars up for the winter, according to local passenger agents, and a much larger increase is expected in the next few days.

LEGION INVITING LUNCHEON CLUBS

Post Decides to Ask Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions and City Dads as Guests

This gathering will be among the biggest of the year and the activities committee already is at work on the program. A speaker probably will be engaged.

With approximately 50 renewals turned in at the meeting, Oney Johnston post continues to lead the state in the amount of members in the campaign which is in progress for 1925. Reports showed that there has been a generous response and that many veterans are being enrolled for the first time.

Sale of blankets as a means of obtaining funds is progressing satisfactorily, the members were informed. Entertainment consisted of dancing numbers by Miss June Kaufman and vocal solos by Mrs. Oscar Adler accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Pierce.

GOOD FELLOWS TO GET HELP FROM LUNCHEON CLUBS

Lions First to Sign Agreements to Take Part in Campaign This Month

The first big step in the community effort to raise $3,000 for relief of the needy in Appleton this winter was taken Monday noon at the weekly meeting of Appleton Lions club when a vast majority of members signed agreements to devote at least two hours of their time on either Dec. 17 or 18 to solicitation in a campaign to be held on these days. Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, whose officers have informed the project, will be asked to sign similar agreements.

Preliminary arrangements for the campaign and for distributing the money to the five relief organizations affiliated with Appleton Welfare Council were made at meetings of inter-club committees appointed by three luncheon clubs. These committees, in joint sessions, worked out a plan for reorganizing the Appleton Welfare Council to include in it the five relief organizations—City Relief society, Salvation Army, Jewish Ladies Aid society, German Ladies Aid society and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Catholic Order of Foresters—Appleton Rotary club, Appleton Kiwanis club, Appleton Lions club, Appleton Women's club and the city of Appleton. Experts for enlarging the council and providing for distribution of the money to the relief societies, the council will remain much the same as it has been.

Appleton Welfare Council, as reorganized and with the cooperation of the luncheon clubs will in a way take over the Good Fellows club which the Appleton Post-Crescent has organized at Christmas time the last five years. The Good Fellows club will be organized as usual but in addition to the plea which the Post-Crescent carries, there will be active and personal solicitation for funds for relief work.

The new plan was adopted because the money provided by the Good Fellows was not sufficient to carry on relief work in Appleton. The Good Fellows club has provided between thirteen and fourteen hundred dollars a year, less than half of the sum required by the relief societies. Much of the time of the societies was taken up in raising the remainder of the money. It was felt if their financial worries could be taken away there would be much more time to devote to meeting the needs of the poor.

The movement has received the heart approval of the luncheon clubs and a considerable enthusiasm for the campaign is being worked up. Leaders in the work are confident without difficulty that the budget of $3,000 can be raised.

MARINETTE BOYS STEAL THUNDER FROM KLUXERS

The affair of the three fiery crosses that were set up in Appleton's business district on Thanksgiving night, at first attributed to Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, is now believed by persons who have had some experience with Marinette rosters, to be the work of Marinette high school students who accompanied the team to the Thanksgiving homecoming game here with Appleton high school. It is pointed out that two years previous when dozens of adventurous students of that city "bummed" their way here by freight cars, they engaged in shooting exhibitions on some of the side streets. Burning fiery crosses was their way of celebrating the victory, is the way local observers put it.

2 CARS DAMAGED IN CORNER CRASH

The rear wheel and axle on the left side of a roadster owned by Joseph Besek of Little Chute were broken off and the entire right side of a new sedan owned by Harry and Ray Muench of Appleton was badly damaged in a collision late Monday night at the corner of Union and Pacific-ave. Mr. Besek was traveling west on Pacific-ave when he was struck by the car driven by Harry Muench, which was going north on Union-st. The cars swung over the curb and against a large oak tree. The top and glass on the left side of the sedan was broken and the right side badly bent, but Mr. Muench was able to drive away. The left front fender, lights and windshield were damaged on the roadster.

The Muench car was occupied by the Misses Helena Kozietzke and Evelyn Court and Harry and Ray Muench all of Appleton. Harry Muench suffered a cut over his left eye and the others were slightly cut and shaken up. Mr. Besek was uninjured.

LUZT MANAGER OF APPLETON THEATRE

Theatres

Charming Donna Darling, the beautiful bathing girl from the Mack Sennett studios, sang and danced her way into the hearts of the Appleton patrons last evening. Her costumes were elaborate especially the rhinestone bathing suit which was discovered when she threw aside her $10,000 ermine cape as carelessly as one discards a raincoat. Miss Darling's versatility in entertainment is only exceeded by her magnetic personality which is felt from the time she first appears until the final curtain. Her "dancin' fool," is well named for we have seen no one who dances so rapidly or so gracefully as Murry Earle. Miss Myrtle Matteson, the bird girl, gave some clever imitations of familiar songsters of this locality, while Miss Alyce Louise very aptly interpreted the dance of a Hawaiian bathing girl. Mildred O'Brien as Miss Bowery rivaled with Miss Betty Bryant as "Miss America" the perfect bathing girl of 1934. Comedies were supplied by the Russian ballet dancers and Mile. Ballofsky which was danced by the life guards.

The entire revue was so cleverly staged that not one moment was found uninteresting. Great difficulty was experienced in obtaining a short release from the motion picture studios where they have been making pictures but the success has justified the effort for last evening many patrons recalled having seen these girls at various times on the screen.
